

Marcus Lackey, M.D. is currently in his third year of general psychiatry residency training at the University of South Alabama in Mobile, AL. He is committed to improving and saving lives through the practice of addiction medicine/psychiatry and serves as an Advisory Member of the Board of Directors of Professionals Resource Network, Florida's physician health program. Dr. Lackey is a graduate of Florida State University College of Medicine, where he was elected to the Gold Humanism Honor Society and served as the President of the Psychiatry Student Interest Group. Prior to medical school, Dr. Lackey served as a Lieutenant in the U.S. Navy and worked in real estate finance and investments. He earned an MBA from The Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania and a B.A. with honors from Georgetown University.